GENERAL INFORMATION

THE TWELFTH SOUTHEASTERN CONSORTIUM

for Continuing Medical Education in Dermatology will be held in Chapel Hill, North Carolina on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 7-9, 1988 and will be hosted by the Department of Dermatology of the University of North Carolina. The educational goal of the Consortium is to update one or two areas of clinical dermatology at each meeting. These topics are selected from a core curriculum, and the meeting rotates every year among the participating institutions. The goal is to recycle the complete curriculum every eight years. Emphasis is placed on choosing effective and enthusiastic speakers from the region encompassed by the Consortium.

THE TOPICS THIS YEAR:

1. "Skin Manifestations of Connective Tissue Diseases"
2. "Blistering Diseases of the Skin"

MEETING PLACE AND OVERVIEW:

The meeting is hosted this year by the Department of Dermatology of the University of North Carolina. The Friday and Saturday sessions will be held on the first floor of Berryhill Hall, UNC School of Medicine. On Sunday morning, October 9, a clinical meeting consisting of patient presentations will begin at 8:00 a.m. in Clinics 1A-1D on the first floor of North Carolina Memorial Hospital. At 10:00 a.m. a discussion of the patients will begin in Berryhill Hall.

HERBERT Z. LUND LECTURESHIP:

Dr. Luis Diaz, Professor of Dermatology, Chief of Immunodermatology Unit, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine and a noted expert in bullous and immunological cutaneous diseases will give the Herbert Z. Lund Lecture at 8:10 a.m. on Saturday morning.

SPECIAL CLINICAL LECTURES:

Dr. Jeffrey Callen, Chairman of Dermatology at Louisville, and a recognized expert in autoimmune and connective tissue diseases, will deliver two special lectures on Friday afternoon, October 7; the lecture at 12:35 p.m. will be entitled "Dermatomyositis and Malignancy" and the second special lecture at 2:15 p.m. will be entitled "Subacute Cutaneous Lupus Erythematosus".

CLINICAL MEETING:

All Consortium meetings are held in conjunction with a clinical meeting at which patients are presented and discussed. This year the Department of Dermatology at the University of North Carolina will present patients on Sunday, October 9, in clinics 1A-1D on the first floor of North Carolina Memorial Hospital. Registration will begin at 8:00 a.m. and patient presentations will begin at 8:30 a.m.

CREDIT:

The American Academy of Dermatology, as an organization accredited for continuing medical education, certifies that participation in the Consortium Program plus the Clinical Meeting qualifies for 13 hours of CME credit with the American Academy of Dermatology toward the continuing medical education award and toward the Physician's Recognition Award.

RECEPTION AND DINNER:

A reception and dinner will be held on Saturday evening at the Morehead Planetarium and will begin at 6:30 p.m.

REGISTRATION:

Registration is required for the Consortium meeting on Friday and Saturday, the reception and dinner, and the Sunday clinical meeting. Please complete the registration form and enclose your check for the appropriate amount. Please make your check payable to the Southeastern Consortium for CME. Residents in training may attend the Consortium and the clinical meeting at no charge, except for a $30 per person charge for the reception and dinner.

HOTEL RESERVATIONS:

A block of rooms has been reserved at the Carolina Inn which is within easy walking distance to the hospital and Berryhill Hall. Make your reservations directly by calling (919) 933-2001. There are a limited number of rooms available, so reservations should be made as early as possible. Rooms will be held for us until September 21st. Any concerns about hotel accommodations should be addressed by calling the SEC hotel coordinator, Ruthie Lawson, directly at the number above. The meeting rates for the hotel are $39-58 per night for 1 person, and $51-73 per night for 2 persons. When you make your reservation, be sure to mention that you are with the Southeastern Consortium Dermatology meeting.

OTHER ACTIVITIES:

The charming town of Chapel Hill is centered around the campus of the University of North Carolina. The Carolina Inn is within easy walking distance to the town and campus. Walking tours are available of the campus. Points of interest include the Morehead Planetarium, the Dean Smith Activity Center, the Kenan Center and the N.C. Botanical Garden. Shopping and restaurants abound along Franklin Street in the center of town.
