The Eighteenth Southeastern Consortium for Continuing Medical Education in Dermatology will be held in Durham, North Carolina, on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, September 16-18, 1994. The meeting will be hosted by the Division of Dermatology of Duke University Medical Center. The educational goal of the Consortium is to provide an update in one or two areas of clinical dermatology selected from a core curriculum.
The meeting rotates every year among the participating institutions. Emphasis is placed on choosing effective speakers from the region encompassed by the Consortium. This year's Southeastern Consortium will be held in conjunction with a Callaway Club reunion and thus many of the speakers are nationally recognized experts from outside the Southeastern Consortium area.

Topics This Year

MEETING VENUE/REGISTRATION

The lectures will be given Friday from 12:30-5:00 PM and Saturday from 8:00 AM-12:00 noon at the Washington Duke Inn immediately adjacent to the Duke campus. The Sunday patient presentations will be from 8:30-10:00 AM in Duke Hospital South and the clinical/histopathological discussion will immediately follow in Duke North Auditorium, Room 2002. Registration will be by mail or in person at the Washington Duke Inn Friday, September 16, 11:30 AM-5:00 PM, and Saturday, September 17, 8:00 AM-12:00 noon, or at Duke South Sunday, September 18, at 7:30-8:00 AM. Please complete the registration form and enclose your check for the appropriate amount, payable to the Southeastern Consortium for Dermatology. Registration for dinner Friday evening is an additional cost beyond the meeting fee. Dermatology residents may attend the SEC and clinical patient meeting without charge.

CME CREDIT

Course No. 109-100

This educational activity has been recognized for 12 hours of AAD Category I credit and may be used toward the American Academy of Dermatology's Continuing Medical Education Award.

HOTEL RESERVATIONS

The meeting site of this year's Consortium is the beautiful and gracious Washington Duke Inn and Golf Club. The Washington Duke Inn is known for providing the finest service and accommodations and Southern hospitality.

A block of rooms, single or double, at the special consortium rate of $85.00/night will be available until August 15, 1994. You are responsible for making your own reservations by returning a hotel reservation card which will be mailed to you with your Southeastern Consortium registration confirmation.

EVENING AND GUEST ACTIVITIES

Cocktails and wine (cash bar) will be served Friday evening, September 16th, on the Terrance on the Green of the Washington Duke Inn (weather permitting) from 6:30-7:30 PM. Dinner will be served at 7:30 PM in the Ambassador Ballroom at the Washington Duke Inn. "The Headliners" will provide music for dancing beginning at 8:30 PM on Friday evening. Southeastern Consortium participants will be free to make their own plans for Saturday evening. The Callaway Club (former Duke residents and faculty) is planning a reunion/dinner on Saturday evening, September 17, and Southeastern Consortium participants are welcome to attend. Seating is limited, however, and interested participants will need to register separately (and early) for this (see registration section). Alternatively, there are many wonderful renowned restaurants in the Triangle area, including the Washington Duke Inn's Fairview Restaurant, the Magnolia Grill in Durham (less than 5 minutes away), and the Hotel Siena, Crook's Corner, and La Rez in Chapel Hill (approximately 20 minutes away). Each of these fine restaurants requires reservations.

There are many exciting things to do in the Triangle area in your spare time. The Washington Duke Inn has recently had an extensive renovation of the adjacent Robert Trent Jones championship golf course. An outdoor swimming pool and tennis courts are on site, and jogging paths wind through the Washington Duke Inn grounds and adjacent Duke Forest. The Washington Duke Inn is immediately across from the Duke campus and all parts of the campus, including the extensive and lovely Duke Gardens, are accessible by walking or by taking a complimentary shuttle from the Washington Duke Inn. Both Raleigh and Chapel Hill have an arboretum/botanical garden and an interesting art museum (North Carolina Museum of Art and Acklund Museum, respectively).
